Previous exposure to arbitration

(e.g., completed course in arbitration/ADR; work experience in arbitration/ADR; academic experience; policy experience. A copy of your CV would be helpful in this regard)

Motivation for application

(In preparing your motivation, please include the following details: a) What do you hope to gain from participating in the programme? b) What would you like to gain from the mentorship programme, e.g., career guidance, development of self-confidence, development of a professional network, improvement of work/life balance, etc.)

Are you currently involved or planning to be involved in another arbitration/ADR-related mentoring programme?*Undertaking

I, the undersigned, understand that the available spots for the Young AFSA mentoring programme are limited. I undertake to dedicate sufficient time to maintain an active role in the activities of my mentoring group, which require, among other things, meeting/consulting with my assigned mentor and co-mentees at least once a quarter (i.e., four times a year).
